

Bracco Foundation supports the young harpists of Accademia Musicale Amadeus

As part of its commitment to nurturing youthful talent, Fondazione Bracco is providing two bursaries for young harpists enrolled at Accademia Musicale Amadeus.

In 2015-2020, in connection with the "Diventerò" project, Fondazione Bracco supported the musical education of harpists Isabella Cambini and Laura Colombo.

In 2017, the two players performed along with the very young and highly gifted Silvia Capé at a recital at Teatrino di Palazzo Visconti, which was staged both to showcase the young talents and to introduce their music to a non-specialist audience.

>>>Find out more here: Amadeus Music Academy